

LESSONS IN LEADERSHIP SERIES:

Leading a Lean Culture

-Continuous Government Improvement-

FREE for Washington State Agency Leaders

Sponsored in partnership with

Date:

Thursday, April 12, 2012

Time:

8:30am-4:00pm

Location:

Columbia Room
Washington State Capitol
416 Sid Snyder Avenue SW
Olympia, WA 98504

For Additional Information or to Register:

360.902.0849

accountability@gov.wa.gov

Space is limited to 25, so register early!

Sponsored by the Governor's Office

Accountability & Performance

Lean is seen as a common sense way to run an organization, but actually doing it is sometimes more difficult than it first appears. While Lean can flourish temporarily at the lower levels of the organization, it takes full commitment of leadership to become sustainable. Join us as we explore the leader's role in developing and sustaining a Lean culture. Including:

- ✓ Lean culture principles
- ✓ The relationship between courage, humility and continuous improvement – do we have what it takes?
- ✓ Setting the course, the leader role in Lean – including strategy development and deployment
- ✓ Empowering all levels through Lean Business Practice 8-Step & Everyday Kaizen
- ✓ Leader Expectations – setting the example

honsha is partnering with Washington State Government to provide this session aimed at executive leaders learning to lead Lean to support the Governor's executive order on Lean Transformation (EO 11-04).

Darril Wilburn of honsha will be presenting. honsha delivers Lean solutions to companies of all sizes around the world. Darril was a leader in the development and implementation of some of Toyota Manufacturing's highest profile leadership development programs. He led the Toyota Way 2001 (Toyota core values and principles) implementation at Toyota's largest manufacturing plant in North America and also worked with the Toyota Institute in Japan to develop the Toyota Business Practice (TBP), leading the global pilot of this program.

Darril Wilburn
Senior Associate

